Why Collaborate Online?

- Because you teach online
- Because you teach face-to-face and want:
 - More time
 - For interaction
 - For feedback
 - More information
 - About who is participating
 - About what has been done

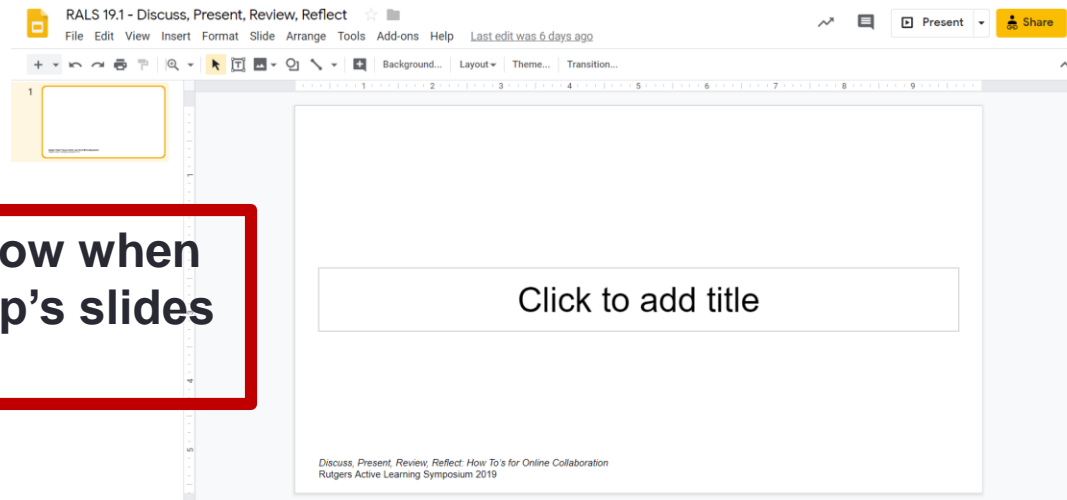

Discuss

What's the most important thing you've learned today, and why?

As a table, work together to identify the top tip that you have gained from RALS 19.

Present – Google Slides

- Open the Google Slides doc for your table

Find your table's VT

The screenshot shows the Voicethread website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'vt Home', 'Browse', and 'Create' options. A search bar is located in the center of the navigation bar. Below the navigation bar, the 'Groups' section is visible, with 'RALS 19' selected. A red-bordered box highlights the text: 'Open the RALS 19 group and find your table's VT'. To the right of the group name, there is a card with the text: 'DISCUSS, PRESENT, REVIEW, REFLECT HOW TO'S FOR ONLINE COLLABORATION' by Crystal Akers, with the email address cakers@linguistics.rutgers.edu. Below the card, the title 'RALS 19 - Presenter Slides' is visible.

Present – Add comments to your VT

What's the most important thing you've learned today, and why?

As a table, work together to identify up to 3 tips, strategies, resources, etc. that you have gained from RAALS 19.

Comment

Find the slide you want to comment on, then click the comment button to add text, audio, or video

Review – Check out other VTs

- The online Q&A portion of small-group presentation!
- Leave feedback for other VTs and respond to comments on your VT

VoiceThread Docs / Web Application / Commenting / Direct reply to a comment

Direct reply to a comment

If you are the owner or editor of a VoiceThread, you are able to insert a comment directly after someone else's comment on your slide. This allows you to help guide the conversation and give feedback directly to your participants. To do this, click on the direct reply icon inside a person's comment window.

Reflect

- An opportunity for students to
 - Demonstrate what they've learned about the presentation topic
 - Reflect on feedback from peer review
 - Make connections to other course topics
 - Explain what they might revise if they could
- Consider:
 - Full class discussion
 - Individual responses to pre-determined questions

So Why Collaborate Online?

- Because you teach online
- Because you teach face-to-face and want:
 - More time  Miss some VTs today?
• For interaction  Check them out at home!
• For feedback  Keep up the conversation!
 - More information  Google Slides version history
• Who is participating?  VT “recent activity” info
• What has been done?
